9•	Gera (K-06): Signal troops were billeted in the Panzer Barracks at Gera/Tinz early in July. They were constantly engaged in maneuvers on the Autobahn and in the surrounding country. They worked in groups of three on the transmission and reception of W/T signals. In early July, an artillery unit consisting of 1,200 men joined the signal troops. The komendatura in Gera was dissolved in late June and the personnel transferred to Possneck.
10.	Quedlinburg (D-35): On 22 June builders in Quendlinburg and Consersleben received instructions from the Soviet Komendatura to produce by 30 June preliminary plans for the quartering in their respective Kreise of officers, FM, and staffs, and also for hospitals and ration and ammunition dumps. Quedlinburg builders were to be responsible for the planning in Ochsersleben and vice-versa.
	On 12, 14 and 15 July, the station masters at Hagdeburg, Ochsersleben, Blankenburg, Thale and Quedlinburg each received instructions to assemble one troop train of fifty freight cars and to hold it at instant readiness on a siding near the station. None of these trains had been dispatched by 17 July.
